Statement of Activities and Release of Liability Form

(For ARM participants 19 years and older)

Alabama Rural Ministry, (ARM) is a home repair and children’s day camp ministry primarily serving those in rural areas of Alabama, particularly Sumter, Mobile, Macon and Lee counties. Volunteers participating in ARM will be expected to perform work in specific activities including, but not limited to roofing, carpentry, digging, plumbing, glasswork, painting, flooring, masonry, and other facets of construction. These activities may include, but are not limited to the use of power tools such as saws and drills, as well as the use of hand tools. The activities may also require climbing ladders with and without supplies, tools, and materials as well as working in high places such as roofs. Volunteers may also be working with children; this may include, but is not limited to recreational activities such as basketball, kickball and swimming. Participants will also be involved in food preparation and service. In their free time, volunteers may choose to engage in activities including but not limited to sports, hiking, shopping, touring, or other activities of their choosing. ARM may sponsor some recreational activities, which may include, but are not limited to swimming, basketball, volleyball, football, and frisbee. Other activities include but are not limited to travel to homes, parks, theaters, churches, restaurants, and shops. Volunteers are not required to engage in any activity in which they feel they are not able to safely participate.

I, _____, have read the foregoing statement of activities in which I will participate, and hereby fully release and discharge Alabama Rural Ministry and its directors, agents, employees, and all persons connected therewith from any and all liability, claims and causes or action of any type whatsoever arising out of or in any way connected with my participation in the activities organized by Alabama Rural Ministry, and in particular those activities associated with the workday/trip on _____ to _____.
